

and track disaster personnel and teams.

The Corps cannot succeed in meeting our responsibilities for response to and recovery from disasters without strong and effective Contracting support. While both Readiness and Contracting face challenges of an increasing workload and declining resources, innovative approaches such as Readiness 2000 and the restructuring initiatives within the Contracting Community will position the Corps for success. The Readiness team looks forward to working with our colleagues in Contracting as we both restructure our programs to best meet national needs.

Conferences/Training

Upcomings

- * NCMA World Congress' 98, World-Class Education and Training, (Angela Billups, POC)
Huntsville, Alabama; March 29 - April 1, 1998
- * American Project Management Forum #6, (Tony Cochran, POC)
Georgetown Conference Center, Washington, DC; March 26, 1998
- * Annual Worldwide Area/Resident Engineering & Contracting Conference, (LTC Moyer, POC)
May 19-21 1998 in Dallas, Texas
- * Federal Dollar$ and Sense for Women-Owned Business, Savannah District, SADBU; March 10, 1998

g. Civil Works Orientation, 98-01, 23-27 Mar 98, Huntsville, AL

h. Fire Protection, 93-01, 23-27 Mar 98, Huntsville, AL

i. Human Resour Mgt III, 98-05, 23-27 Mar 98, Broken Arrow, AL

j. Soil Structure Interact, 98-01, 23-27 Mar 98, Vicksburg, MS

2. Spaces may be received by forwarding a DD Form 1556 to CE Registrar Division at 202-895-7469 (fax no.)

Available spaces in Prospect Courses

By Sherry M. Whitaker

1. Spaces are available in the following courses:
  - a. Hist Structures I, session 98-01, 16-20 Mar 98, Seattle, WA
  - b. Neg Const Cont Mods, 98-03, 16-20 Mar 98, Seattle, WA
  - c. RE Appraisal/Leasing, 98-01, 16-20 Mar 98, San Antonio, TX
  - d. Visitor Assist Mgt & Pol, 98-02, 18-20 Mar 98, Sacramento, CA
  - e. Visitor Assist NRM, 98-02, 16-20 Mar 98, Sacramento, CA
  - f. A-E Contracting, 98-05, 23-27 Mar 98, Decatur, GA